Alabama Hills Interpretive Hikes March 2020

"The Alabama Hills under our Feet" February 29 & March 21

This ancient landscape captures the stories of the ages. Hear geological and cultural tales on a short walk through the corridors and crags nestled in the Sierra Nevada foothills.

"Film History in the Alabama Hills" March 7 & 28

There have been more than 400 movies and countless commercials filmed in the Alabama Hills. Hear interesting and amusing stories about numerous productions as you explore the camera locations. This walk covers an area of Movie Flat that includes locations from memorable films such as Gunga Din, Tremors, and Django Unchained. This is a relatively easy walk on existing roads and trails covering less than one mile.

"These Alabama Hills are Alive" March 14

Explore the mysteries hidden within the eroded granite rock while walking through the passageways and along the ridge lines that make up the maze of this amazing setting. Learn about the many secretive creatures and flora hidden within the rocks. This is a moderately strenuous hike with occasional steep sections of trail.

WHEN: 10 a.m.– Noon including drive time. "These Alabama Hills are Alive" is a longer hike and concludes at 1:00 p.m. including drive time.

WHERE: Meet at the Arch Loop Trail Parking, Alabama Hills National Scenic Area. From Lone Pine turn west off Hwy 395 onto Whitney Portal Road and drive for approximately 2.5 miles to Movie Road. Go north on Movie Road for approximately 1.5 mile. The road will begin to curve to the east. Look for a large parking area and a trail head sign to your left.

WEAR: Layered clothing for a range of conditions, sturdy footwear and plenty of water.
